Details of Borrower(s)

Full name(s): _____

Declaration of Credit Purpose

Under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, a loan contract isn't classed as a 'consumer contract' if the credit will be used wholly or predominantly for business or investment purposes (or for both purposes).

If you've previously let us know your loan is for business or investment purposes, you'll need to sign the declaration below, as proof of this. The declaration is a formal confirmation, so you need to make sure you understand what it says, and you're comfortable signing it before you do.

If you're uncertain in any way, feel free to take this Declaration away and seek independent advice before you sign it.

Declaration

I/We declare the purpose of the lending to which this Declaration relates is wholly or predominantly for business or investment purposes (or for both).

I/We confirm that I/We have read and understood this Declaration.
